HAND PROTECTION HAPPENS HERE!

AUTOMOTIVEAUTOMOTIVEAUTOMOTIVE

At Atlantic Safety Products, we take great pride in providing Automotive Professionals gloves that offer serious protection from your work environment while keeping your most important tools, your hands, in top condition for maximum productivity.

- Our gloves protect your hands without cutting back on productivity
- Our gloves provide exceptional comfort for extended wear – keeping your costs down
- Our gloves provide a secure grip that keep tools in your hands
- Our gloves protect you against the toxic materials you use every day

Our Quality Pledge

Atlantic Safety Products provides innovative high quality products designed to protect Automotive Professionals in the most challenging environments. All around the shop it's expected that you take care of the tools that help you do your job. But what are you doing to protect the most important tools you own – your hands?

Our gloves have superior strength and stretch – less tearing – and are designed to keep you safe and improve your productivity as an Automotive Professional. Every day your hands are exposed to a wide variety of toxic materials. Protecting your hands is extremely important in the Automotive Industry, as well as at Atlantic Safety Products.

After all, 'safety' is our middle name.
